

Any home or commercial property can very quickly become infested with mould if it has come in contact with water or if liquids are present. Mould can spread throughout a property in as little as 48 hours. Since mould can produce allergens and irritants, you should call us to inspect your home if you suspect you have a mould problem.